in this thoughtful comprehensive study of scripture tradition and the modern world john r w stott brings readers face to face with the centrality of the cross in god s plan of redemption

j c ryle s sermon the cross of christ focuses on the centrality of christ s crucifixion in christian faith and life drawing from galatians 6 14 god forbid that i should glory save in the cross of our lord jesus christ ryle presents a powerful exposition of why the cross is the cornerstone of the gospel and explores its significance for personal salvation christian living and the church

these powerful words pierce straight to the heart of our deepest spiritual need what does it mean to embrace to live by and to daily bear the cross of jesus christ why does god ask his children to bear this cross as our modern world shifts and shakes a generation of earnest believers is coming face to face with a deeper reality of our call to bear the cross of jesus christ murray meets us where we are with gentleness and passion calming our quaking fears and guiding us into the mystery of the shadow of the cross

if a b simpson lived and preached one central theme throughout his long and fruitful ministry it was the message of the cross death to self and a life of victory through the resurrection power of christ these ten chapters from one of the most dynamic evangelical leaders of the early 20th century focus on his belief that christ's death was the ultimate expression of god's love for humans a divine plan large enough to encompass the whole world the symbols of the cross that dr shaw taught on in this book makes the book a must read god has laid on dr shaw's heart the contents that are enclosed between the covers god has used him mightily to deliver the message of hope grace mercy forgiveness love and peace the book has given relevance to the power and deliverance of the cross of jesus christ the holy ghost and the word of god are the clear and present drivers and motivators for this book in it are words that will give hope to anyone who thinks that all is lost it emphasizes on the work that was done on the cross that makes it possible for the grace of god to flow in our lives it shows that mercy is still available to us even when we are undeserving dr shaw makes it very plain that we are to forgive our brothers and sisters because of the finished work that was done on the cross of our lord and savior jesus christ this book tells us to love god our family our friends ourselves and our ministries god intentionally points out in this book that his peace is always available to anyone who needs it especially in trying times it is a book that is powerfully and divinely written to emphasize the presence of god in this world using the cross of his son jesus christ because god so loved the world that he gave his only begotten son that whoever believes in him should not perish but have everlasting life amen john 3:16 nkjv

a stirring study for the maturing christian by prolific author jessie penn lewis on finding victory in death of self and life and power in christ through atonement looks at how christ's work of atonement on the cross affects every aspect of the christian faith andrew murray relates in this work the importance of the cross to christian belief and to the lessons which jesus christ wanted to teach all of mankind although demonstratively brief murray's explanations contain a conviction and poignancy explaining the centrality and vitality of the crucifix to the christian faith the crucifixion's importance in christ's message and destiny and the reasons behind why his spirit was led to a painful end upon the cross are keenly discussed by murray he delivers explanations of the cross as a symbol of christian attainment wherein god takes possession of the human soul and frees it from sin for eternity andrew murray authored 200 works on the religion and ministry of christianity the bible and on topics inspiring christians to lead virtuous and happy lives murray spent most of his life imparting the word of god in churches throughout south africa and in the 1880s became an important figure in the founding of the south african general mission john stott presents bible studies based on his book the cross of christ on the meaning and purpose of the cross in our lives these thirteen session lifeguide bible study provide the ever increasing understanding of the cross needed by every believer it is basic to the christian understanding of theology history and every other field of knowledge indeed it is an issue so vast and significant that few books even attempt to span the broad spectrum of topics it raises

i am crucified with christ nevertheless i live yet not i but christ lives in me and the life which i now live in the flesh i live by the faith of the son of god who loved me and gave himself for me galatians 2 20 i want to tell you what perhaps the greatest christian who ever lived the apostle paul thought of the cross of christ believe me the cross is one of deepest importance this is no mere question of controversy this is not one of those points on which men may agree to differ and feel that differences will not shut them out of heaven a man must be right on this subject or he is lost forever heaven or hell happiness or misery life or death blessing or cursing in the last day all hinges on the answer to this question what do you think about the cross of christ let me show you 1 what the apostle paul did not glory in 2 what paul did glory in 3 why all christians should think and feel about the cross like paul with warm christian compassion van zeller shows how the answer to the problem of evil can be found only in christ june the most momentous time in all of recorded history was when jesus christ the son of god came into the world to proclaim the kingdom of god because he challenged the jewish and roman authorities with the truth of god he was arrested condemned to death nailed to the cross died for the sins of the world and rose from the grave therefore god has highly exalted him christ fulfilled the reason for which the father had sent him into the world on the cross our sins were exchanged for christs righteousness on the cross was christ the righteousness of god standing before the cross were we sinners in need of redemption he died as the evidence of the love of god the result of the cross is that we have been redeemed and reconciled to our father and creator we have peace with god we have become the children of god he who knew no sin became sin for us the righteous for the unrighteous the sinless for the sinner therefore the cross of christ symbolizes the glory of the christian gospel i cor 1 17 the fact that through this cruel and inhuman death the debt of sin was nailed to the cross col 2 14 and we having been crucified with christ gal 2 20 have been freed from sin and death and made alive in god rom 6 6 11 the cross is the symbol of christs love gods power to save and our faith in him who died for us in this small gem of theological reflection north america s foremost theologian of the cross offers a profound and compelling contemplation on the relevance of the church s most fundamental confession hall ponders what confessing jesus as crucified means in today s context one that is postmodern pluralistic multicultural and in some respects post christian a digest of his monumental trilogy this book lays out in brief compass the heart of hall s theology of the cross contrasting it sharply with the theology of established christianity showing how it reframes classical christology and soteriology and drawing the implications for what it means to be human for christian ethics and for the church a question has challenged the human conscience for two thousand years how are we to explain the presence of jesus christ in this world or who indeed was jesus christ a man like the rest of men or was he a divine person why was it that well practiced soldiers who failed to fulfill their commission to arrest him said never man spoke like this man the early church confirmed the apostles declaration that jesus christ was the eternal son of god and that he came into the world to fulfill a messianic redemptive assignment christ jesus the apostle to the gentiles explained came into the world to save sinners in the cross its meaning and message in a postmodern world douglas vickers sees the cross as the watershed of history the divine objectives that the cross addressed bear vitally on the human condition vitiated as that is by the entailment of sin in an age in which postmodernist claims have rejected absolute criteria of truth and validity the christ of the cross provides the only refuge for those burdened by the search for meaning the cross explores the way of reconciliation between god and man it affirms the apostolic claim that in christ are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge excerpt from the meaning of the cross studies of the cross of christ throughout the bible the new birth becomes an actual experience the moment that we receive the lord jesus christ as our saviour by that act on the ground of the atoning sacrifice of the son of god we receive new life even the life of god we pass into a new stage that of spiritual regeneration regeneration by the holy spirit and we enter into a new position that of being the children of god now i dare not and can not emphasize too strongly the necessity of the new birth simply because the new birth produces the new creation and the new creation is god's imperative demand and requirement for new life and for new service one of our old scottish preachers once said all mankind hangs either at the cradle of adam or at the cradle of christ and we have to choose i venture to say that the ordinary churchgoer has little or no idea of the meaning of that and yet it is one of the essential facts of the word of god the old head of the race was adam and adam failed and fell and the old creation failed in him and fell with him it is very important to be quite clear about that i want to quote from a great bible teacher if man never fell then the christ of the gospels lived and taught and died unnecessarily these are words that ought to be placarded abroad to day that man is consistent who abandons all rather than he who professing still to own allegiance to christ denies some parts of the whole it is a pity that all of our liberal theologians could not read these words these are words by j campbell morgan in the introduction to the book of genesis in his analyzed bible about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works this volume conveniently collects together three related short studies by professor hengel the son of god crucifixion and the atonement together they form an important introduction to the crucial period of christian belief between the crucifixion of jesus and the writings of paul ever since his first sermon in 1925 martyn lloyd jones consistently emphasized the significance of christ's sacrifice for our sake this new collection of sermons reveals this theme in lloyd jones classic expository style showing his gift for combining a warm personal devotion to jesus christ with deep theological insight his grasp of scripture still causes the maturest believer to ponder yet he brings a simplicity of thought to his preaching that even a child can understand and enjoy the cross explains how christ's crucifixion works for our redemption and why this even is the cornerstone of the christian life
